EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS. TUENDAY MORNING, JUNE 11.

secure a promise from Murdoch, the celebrated tragedian, to give two enthem than the readings which Mur-doch proposes to give. He is celebrated, as all know, throughout this country and Europe, for his wonderful geadmire transcendent genius, and who can appreciate the most graphic selections from the standard authorship of English literature. His readings will embrace passages from the Merchant of Venice, and from Hamlet, in Shakspeare, and from the "Pickwick Papers" of Dickens, beside many other selections from well known authors, including some of the most popular and numorous poems.

The Library Association has provided Mr. Murdoch one hundred dollars for each evening. Hence it has been neces sarv to fix the price of tickets at one dollar for reserved seats, and seventy-five sents for general admittance. The sale of seats will commence in a day or two at Sheib's Music Store. We trust that it will not be said of us after this experiment on the part of the Library Association, that no really first-cla totellectual entertainment in Wheeling can be made to pay. Such has been performances in our midst? We trust that every admirer of rich endowments, such as Murdoch possesses, and every lover of our noble literature, will feel a deep interest in making these enter-

THE condition of things in the city of New York must certainly be a de-plorable one, if we may believe half we see in its newspapers. What with thant for breaking instead of pre- ing. robbers who only follow their natural alling, the peaceable citizen hardly knows when he is safe. The following is from the Times:

is from the Times:

"A correspondent complains of the high-handed rufflanism which now prevails upon the street. He cites the case of a respectable lady who was knocked down and robbed in broad daylight one pleasant afternoon of last week, while she was walking in Madison avenue, between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets. THE Portland Press says that several years ago, Horace Greeley bought a swamp for a farm. He went to work on scientific principles—built his farm mansion on a ledge that loomed up out of the damp waste, cut drains, laid out of the damp waste, cut drains, laid on tavenues, dug up muck—and now has just one of the prettiest places in Westchester county. He constructed an artificial trout lake on his premises—Greeley likes trout; and has some fine specimens in his pond. When he gets time to get out of the city and go home, he may be seen feeding or watching the trout.
